Impossible Choices: Our Gay Children or the Church? Parents and family members are put in impossible situations when their church, faith tradition or denomination is not accepting of their lesbian, gay, bisexual or transgender loved ones. Many parents describe the dilemma of being asked to choose between their child, their faith or place in church. It should not be this way. Join More Light Presbyterians, the national LGBT Equality Network for a panel conversation led by Presbyterian parents with LGBT children. Mitzi Henderson and Sally and Dave McClure will offer inspiration and personal insights. Pastoral care and educational resources for families, pastors, Christian Educators, Stephen's ministers, deacons, campus and youth ministers will be offered.
